ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 27, 1905.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

DON'T BE HYPNOTISED.

Hoodwinked, hoodooed, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with its record of nearly 40 years, embracing hundreds of thousands of cures of women's peculiar ailments. It's the only remedy for women's ills sold by druggists, that is not full of "boozes"—poor whisky, or bad alcohol.

A guarantee of $1000 is offered that "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium or other harmful drug. Keeps in any climate.

"Favorite Prescription" is a powerful invigorating tonic, and imparts strength to the whole system and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For "worn-out," "run-down," "drifters," milliners, dressmakers, "shop-girls," housewives, mothers, and feeble ones, Dr. Pierce's Favorite is the greatest earthly boon, and as an appetizing cordial, a tonic.

Send to your intelligence for a dealer to attempt to palm off upon you an alcoholic substitute for this world-famed medicine. You know what you want. It's his business to meet that want. When he urges some substitute he's thinking of the larger profit he'll make—not of your welfare.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY. In copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away $50,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in it? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 10 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If out of health, write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice without charge.

Pierce's Kidney Pills. These sugar-coated little pellets are the smallest, easiest to take, and the easiest to the way they act. No griping, no violence, no disturbance to the system, diet or occupation. They are the Original Little Liver Pills, put up by Dr. R. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago. They have been well imitated but never equaled. They come in vials always fresh and reliable: a convenient vest-pocket remedy.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Dr. J. C. Schoumacker, Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germ, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weakness and become diseased.

Kodol

THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD.

The death in Paris early yesterday morning of Baron Alphonse de Rothschild, head of the French branch of the banking house bearing the name of Rothschild, and governor of the Bank of France, brings to mind many interesting facts in connection with the rise of the banking houses bearing the Rothschild's name.

In the middle of the eighteenth century there lived in the town of Frankfurt-on-the-Main a husband and wife of the Hebrew persuasion, who lavished all their carcasses upon a son, whom they destined for the profession of a school-master.

The boy, whose name was Meyer Anselm Rothschild, and who was born in Frankfurt in the year 1743, exhibited such tokens of capacity that his parents made every effort in their power to give him the advantage of a good education, and with this view he spent some years at Furth, going through such a curriculum of study as appeared to be proper. The youth, however, had a natural bent toward the study of antiquities, and this led him more especially to the examination of ancient coins, in the knowledge of which he attained to considerable proficiency.

Here was one step onward in the world, for in after years his antiquarian researches proved the means of extending and ramifying his connection in society, as well as of opening up to him a source of immediate support. His parents, however, died in his eleventh year, and on his return to Frankfurt he set himself to learn practically the routine of the counting-house.

After this he went to Hanover in the employment of a wealthy banking-house, whose affairs he conducted for several years with care and ability, and then there opened under his auspices, in his native city, the germ of that mighty business which was destined to act so powerfully upon the governments of Europe. Before establishing his little banking-house Meyer Anselm Rothschild prepared himself for the venture by marrying, and his prudent choice contributed greatly to his eventual success. Subsequently he returned to Frankfurt, where, after having engaged in the banking business on his own account, he became the banker of William IX., the landgrave of Hesse.

Meyer Anselm first became known as a negotiator of government loans in 1792 by procuring from the Landgrave an amount of money sufficient to pay the ransom imposed by the French General Custine upon the people of Frankfurt, as an alternative of the sacking of their city. This incident caused his services to be afterwards frequently in demand among the smaller German potentates. In 1800 Napoleon decreed that the states of the sovereigns of Hesse Cassel and Brunswick were forfeited, and sent an army to enforce the decree.

The elector of Hesse decided on fleeing, but being the possessor of $5,000,000 in silver, which he was unwilling to give up to Napoleon, he was in a quandary what to do with it. Sending for Rothschild, he offered him the use of the money without interest if he would remove it to a place of safety. The offer was accepted and the great sum was enjoyed by the banker and his two sons until the banishment of Napoleon to Elba, when the elector gave notice that he would withdraw it.

The return of Napoleon, however, caused the elector so much alarm that he urged the Rothschilds to keep his treasures at the interest of 2 per cent. per annum, which they did until 1823. The faithful and able management of the Rothschilds won for them the confidence of courts and financiers. Meyer Anselm had 10 children, 5 of them sons, all of whom survive him.

The five brothers constituted but one firm, in which each had an equal interest, but transacted business under five branches, in as many different European cities, each being in the charge of one of the brothers. Nathan Rothschild is said to have realized $1,000,000 by knowing the result of Waterloo eight hours before the British government. For many years the Rothschilds have been the takers of the loans of the European governments, and have in more than one instance prevented war by refusing to furnish its sinews.

What Peabody did for London the Rothschilds were doing for Paris in erecting model cheap dwelling houses for workmen. Last July $2,000,000 was presented by the Barons Alphonse, Gustave and Edmond de Rothschild to the municipality of Paris for this purpose, and the proceeds from renting out the apartments, instead of being devoted to the erection of more model dwellings, as Peabody specified, will be used in Paris to found cheap restaurants, baths, hotels, amusement places, and all that can transform the workmen's neighborhood into a healthy, comfortable and agreeable locality.

Baron Alphonse originated the scheme, and was president of the committee composed of six members of the Rothschild family and four prominent men. This gift has particular importance from the fact that it is the first effort of the kind seriously made in France. It had been vaguely hoped that parliament might, at some time, vote a special appropriation for such a purpose, but the day seemed so distant that the Rothschilds generously stepped into the breach, to the great relief of the municipality.

Even the first application of Newbro's Herpicide shows the hair-saving and satisfying "force" that is in it. This "force" is the sum of two characteristics that are united in no other hair remedy.

Herpicide has the ABILITY to destroy the dandruff microbe, and the QUALITY to delight those who wish a dainty hair dressing. It holds the secret of popularity and pleases every one who is discriminating enough to have a preference. It is not sticky. It will not stain the hair.

The curative effect of Herpicide is sometimes little short of marvelous, for after the dandruff germ is destroyed, and kept out of the scalp, the hair is bound to grow as nature intended. It stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

"More Than We Claim."

My customers are so pleased with the results of your Herpicide that I am sold out.

One especially is well pleased, for I cut the hair that is growing on his once bald head the other day.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Herpicide."

My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five or six physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Herpicide, she was perfectly cured and now performs all her household duties. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Very Best.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Cault, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrups is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nerves and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King Street, and corner Queen and Patrick Street.
